INT. BEDROOM - MORNING

We see a cozy bedroom, warmly lit by the morning sun. The interior consists of brown and tan LEGO bricks, with a touch of yellow, orange and a splash of green. A living OWL is sitting by the wall, on top of a GRANDFATHER CLOCK. We hear loud snoring. At 6 o' clock sharp, the owl starts to hoot, just like an alarm clock.

A hairy package squirms in the bed, groaning. Throws off his thick, heavy blankets and gets up: DAVID, the dwarf gets out of bed, placing his SHORT LEGS on the studless, brown tiles of the floor. Behind him there's a poster of the movie „LEGEND“.

David yawns, upbeat medieval-type music starts.

MONTAGE:

of David getting ready in the morning. He showers underneath an indoor WATERFALL, shaves with an AXE, cooks EGGS by the breath of a DRAGON.

Finally David takes out a CHAINMAIL from his incredibly ordinary wardrobe, puts it on, and closes his brown SUITCASE. The music stops, David walks out the door with a merry whistle on his lips.

EXT. ENCHANTED FOREST - MORNING

CU: of David's suitcase as he walks through the forest to work.

David arrives in front of a CAVE. Above the cave entrance, a sign says:

„Fairydust Mines Inc.“

INT. MINE - DAY

David punches in at the entrance, in front of a bunch of hourglasses in different shapes and sizes. He nods to the gatekeeper, a huge TROLL, who is so tall that we cannot see its head. The troll waves to David.

INT. MINE, DAVID'S WORKSPACE - DAY

David is pickaxing away merrily near the wall of the mine. The rocks crumble by the hits of the axe. David's suitcase is by his feet on the clay-like floor of the mine. We hear multiple pickaxes jingling around David.

The mine is filled with other workers just like David, but none of them have suitcases. Everyone is mining enthusiastically: another DWARF is swinging his pickaxe into the wall to reveal the fossil of a ROCK MONSTER, a HALFLING mines a precious gem and a third DWARF mounts sticks of DYNAMITE on the wall.

David hits a rock with his pickaxe and behind it a green ENERGY CRYSTAL shines. He mines it and places it on his WHEELBARROW. On it there are already a couple of GEMS and a BONE.

DISSOLVE TO:

The same wheelbarrow, but with a lot more gems and stones.

David pauses for a moment and looks up, resting his weight on his pickaxe.

DAVID POV:

a gorgeous ELF is mining near the exit. She's not a minifigure, but a MINIDOLL. Her wheelbarrow is almost full with beautiful gems. She rests her DIAMOND PICKAXE for a moment, and then whips her hair back in SLOW MOTION.

David's eyes go wide as we suddenly hear the song "Love is in the Air" by John Paul Young.

As someone walks by in front of David, we quickly...

INT. BATHROOM - DAY

David storms into the bathroom, heart racing. His suitcase is in his hand. The medieval style public bathroom is lit by torches, the mirrors are shiny plates placed on the white wall. From one of the wooden stalls we hear a flushing noise and a GOBLIN comes out.

GOBLIN

Ni vronr salean, to

As the goblin leaves, David stands in front of the mirror, but he cannot see himself: he's too short. He tries jumping, but only sees the top of his head.

FLASH ON:

we see the beautiful long legs of the ELF minidoll.

David sighs, the sigh reverbs around the bathroom. He then looks at his suitcase. We see determination in his eyes. David picks up the suitcase opens it and turns it upside down: a pair of long minifigure legs fall out.

INT. MINE - DAY

The miners are already packing up their tools at the end of the workday. The elf puts her pickaxe in her backpack. We hear David clearing his throat. The elf turns around, curious.

ELF POV:

David is standing there, tall and mighty, muscles flexed.

The elf stares at him for a moment, and then she chuckles.

The elf goes up to a short legged DWARF as David watches, disappointed. The elf and her short husband get on the back of a RED DRAGON and blast off, as if on a motorcycle.

David angrily tosses his long legs back inside the suitcase.
